

GROW CELEBRATE SUCCEED

The Indie Summit was designed as a platform for inspiring and aiding independent brands and innovative entrepreneurs with a go-to community. Hosting yearly events, this creative business expo was founded on the principle to recognize, showcase, and most importantly, celebrate, independent brands while supporting the growth and success of the entrepreneurs behind them.

1 DAY, NOT TO
BE MISSED

The Creative Business Expo was founded to support the growth and success of a generation to come by always leaving things better than we found them. The next wave of indie brands and the entrepreneurs behind them will benefit.

We need YOU

Whether you're toying with starting a creative business of your own or just looking to support your friends and other creatives around Buffalo that you will soon grow to love and enjoy; there is something for you at the Indie Summit. Workshops and speakers will touch on best practices to get on the right track while taking care of your mental wellness with a work-life balance. Come spark connections and creativity with a likeminded network of our generation.

The Indie Summit will host new brands and become home to brand launches that you will be able to shop around and get a first look!

BRANDS

Local press, as well as online media and digital influencers attend CBE to discover trends and NEW brands. That means you!
